3,000 PERSONS ARE RENDERED HOMELESS

Fearful Desolation Wrought By Michigaa Forest Fires.

MANY SUFFERERS WITHOUT FOOD

So Far but Few Lives Are Reported Lost—Some Stories of Human Interest in Connection with the Great Fire.

Milwaukee, Wis., May 22.—A staff correspondent of the Sentinel, who Sunday made a tour of the district in the upper peninsula of Michigan, covered by the forest fires in a special train, telegraphed to his paper that the fire appears to be practically out in all of the district. The fires raged for a distance of 64 miles along the line of the Escanaba and Lake Superior railroad, and for 30 miles beyond Channing, the western terminus of the road. It seems certain now that two thousand persons are homeless in that district, and that 1,000 are left desolate at Quinnesec.

The Quinnesec fire, however, was of different origin from the Escanaba fire, having started in a field where men were pulling stumps and burning debris. This fire spread into the city, wiped out all the buildings, except three residences, and the paper mills. Then the fire spread into the timber and running north for 40 miles, finally joined the flames sweeping east on Escanaba.

It has also been learned that Woodlawn and Kingsley, on the Escanaba and Lake Superior line, were destroyed, and Perkins, on the Northwestern. The strip burned along the Escanaba and Lake Superior road appears to be 50 miles wide, and the alarming nature of the earlier reports of the fire seem to be thoroughly verified by the trip.

Stories of heroic battles against the flames are numerous. Dozens of the towns were saved only by the most desperate battles with the flames. Northland, a town of 1,000 inhabitants, was three times threatened.

Many Freaks were seen. One man who carried the coffin with the corpse of his dead baby 30 miles to Escanaba on escaping from the fire, went back on the special train and found his home gone, but the picket fence surrounding the house was untouched. The ashes of his house had been blown away by the gale, and the fence was the only evidence of human habitation. The rest of the town had also been swept away. A remarkable feature of the fire is the fact that nearly all the refugees are not disheartened but are determined to return and begin anew. They have only the clothing on their backs as possessions.

Murdered Girl to Hide Her Disgrace.

Akron, O., May 22.—The finding of the dead body of Minnie Brandt, a young woman of this city, early Sunday in a hay mow led to the arrest of Leo Dybel, aged about 26 years. According to the police, Dybel has confessed that he killed the girl. Dybel the police say told them that he kept the girl secreted in the hay mow for five days, endeavoring to hit upon some plan to avoid disgrace to both her and himself, and that he wanted to marry her, but his mother opposed it. He says he finally shot the girl.

To Be Deported.

Seattle, Wash., May 22.—W. O. Gest, manager of the Washington company and one of the wealthiest merchants of the northwest, is to be deported. He made a trip to China recently to patch up trade relations and did a great deal toward alleviating conditions caused by the boycott. While he remained a few days and he was found to have trachoma, when the dreaded disease was placed in the Quarantine Detention station at Port Townsend.

Closes 74th Anniversary.

Dayton, O., May 22.—The American Baptist Home Mission Society closed the seventy-fourth anniversary Monday with the election of W. S. Shallenberger, second assistant postmaster general, as president.

AVENGES DEATH OF MARSHAL.

Marshel Dees, of Lenox, Killed by a Desperate Negro.

Tifton, Ga., May 22.—J. W. Dees, marshal of Lenox, 14 miles south of Tifton, was shot and instantly killed Saturday by a negro named Charlie McAllister. Mr. Dees arrested the negro, who was a stranger, on suspicion of being wanted at Brookfield. As he was unlocking the door of the city jail the negro drew a revolver which he had concealed, and holding it on the marshal, backed off. Later, when pursued, he turned and fired on the posse, killing Mr. Dees instantly.

A large crowd gathered, and Sheriff Baker, of Tift county, was telephoned to go with his hounds. Before they got there the negro had been surrounded in a swamp and dogs sent in after him. His ammunition had been exhausted and when the dogs ran at him he ran out of the swamp and was instantly riddled with bullets, it is said nearly 500 being fired into his body.

Mr. Dees was a highly respected citizen, and served the town as marshal for some time. He leaves a widow and two small children.

Several Injured In Fight.

Cincinnati, May 22.—A bloody battle was fought at the Southern depot in Walton, Ky., twenty miles south of Covington, Sunday, and as a result William Morrell lies in a precarious condition with his throat cut from ear to ear by a pocket knife, the arm of George Marchman was fractured by a bullet from a Colt's revolver and Clayton Anderson is suffering from concussion of the brain caused by several blows of a pick handle and other have minor hurts. The injured are recent settlers in Walton from the feud district of the Kentucky mountains. Citizens of Walton stood aside and watched the fight, fearing that any attempt at peace making would result in harm to them. No arrests were made.

Negro Dead; Two Wounded.

Washington, May 22.—One negro is dead and two others wounded, one of them probably fatally, as the result of a shooting affray which occurred just across the Potomac from Washington, D. C. "Uncle John" Jones, a negro 70 years of age, it is said, started the trouble. He was killed by Constable Edward Vertch. Jones wounded Terry Godsey, 33 years old, who is at Georgetown university hospital with probably fatal wounds, and Rastus Ransof, 20 years of age, who is suffering from a bullet wound in the shoulder. The quarrel first started in Washington between Jones and Ransom, and was revived in the Virginia hamlet. Jones had been drinking.

His Foot Mashed.

Columbus, Ga., May 22.—Amos Strother, a young man, has a badly mashed foot as a result of a peculiar accident. He was sitting on an embankment on Broad street, where the street has been torn up for paving purposes, with his feet resting on the car track. A street car came along and he carelessly let one of his feet remain on the rail. The toes were mashed by the car wheel, the foot being badly lacerated. When he recovered from his pain enough to give an account of how the accident occurred, one of the first statements he made was that the street car company was not to blame.

Girl Assaulted by a Tramp.

Pelham, Ga., May 22.—News has just reached here that Miss Kleiver, who resides in the western part of this county with her father, Solomon Kleiver, was criminally assaulted while on her way to the field to carry breakfast to her father. Her assailant is said to have been a tramp. A searching party was formed and pursuit was immediately instituted but so far, no news of his capture has been reported.

Killed by Brother.

Wheeling, W. Va., May 22.—Nora Wilmoth was shot and killed at Bellwood Sunday by her brother Pat, while she was making a case for his wedding. The girl was to have been married today. The police believe the killing followed a quarrel, although the brother and other relatives declare it was accidental.

TEXT OF RATE BILL AS PASSED BY SENATE

Act Points Out Common Carriers of Country.

CITES DUTIES AND RESTRICTIONS

Bill Now Awaits Only Concurrence of House on Senate Amendments and Signature of President—Will Have a Far-Reaching Effect.

Washington, May 22.—The railway rate bill, which has now passed both branches of congress and awaits only the concurrence of the house on the senate amendments and the signature of the president, will have a more far reaching effect than any law of recent years.

The most important provision of the act confers on the interstate commerce commission the authority, on complaint, to examine into any charge of practice of a carrier alleged to be unjust, and when such allegation is sustained to prescribe what shall be a just and reasonable maximum rate or charge, regulation or practice.

The act defines as common carriers owners of pipe lines engaged in the transportation of oil or other commodity, except water and natural or artificial gas, also sleeping car and express companies, and all forms of private cars, terminals, switches and spur tracks.

The issuance of passes of free transportation in any form to all persons except employees of carriers and their families and certain excepted classes is forbidden, and a penalty of not less than $100 nor more than $2,000 is provided, not only for the person issuing such free transportation, but also for the person applying for or accepting it.

Common carriers are prohibited on and after May 1, 1907, from transporting across any state or territorial line any article or commodity other than timber and the manufactured products of lumber, mined or produced by it or under its authority. They are required to construct and operate reasonable terms of connection and switch lines and to furnish cars for the movement of traffic without discrimination and to furnish equally good accommodations to all persons paying the same fare.

Carriers must print and post in conspicuous places all tariffs and charges and such charges cannot be changed without thirty days notice to the public and to the interstate commerce commission except where the commission waives such notice. They are required in time of war or threatened war on demand of the president, to give preference and precedence in the transportation of troops and munitions of war. Every person company or corporation whether carrier or shipper, is prohibited from offering, granting, giving soliciting, accepting or receiving any rebate, preference or discrimination.

Heavy penalties and in some instances imprisonment are prescribed for violation of the provisions of the act. Individuals and corporations alike to be held guilty of misdemeanor for any violation, willfully committed and the corporations and individuals are held responsible for the acts of any agent. Failure to post tariffs entails a fine of not less than $1,000 and not more than $5,000.

Granting or accepting of rebates or kindred discriminations entails a fine of not less than $1,000 and not more than $20,000, and the individual guilty of such act is liable to imprisonment for not more than two years in addition to the fine, in the discretion of the court.

Any shipper who willfully accepts a rebate or discrimination is subject to the above penalties, save to United States three times the value of such rebate or discrimination, and the attorney general is required to bring civil suit to recover this penalty wherever he believes such violation of law has occurred.

The authority of the interstate commerce commission in the maximum rates refers not only to single but joint rates, and applies where one of the parties to the joint rate is a water line.

For failure to obey an order of the commission the carrier forfeits to the United States $5,000 for each offense and each day of a continuing violation is deemed a separate offense.

Where the interstate commerce commission orders a refund to a shipper and the carrier fails to refund, the shipper may institute civil suit to recover. The finding of the commission constitutes prima facie evidence of the facts, and the petitioner is not liable for the costs in the court or at any subsequent stage of the proceedings and if the petitioner finally prevails a reasonable attorney fee is allowed him.

The interstate commerce commission or any person injured by a failure of a carrier to comply with an order of the commission, other than the payment of money, may apply to the circuit court and if the case is established the court shall issue a writ of injunction, mandatory or otherwise, to restrain such carrier from further disobedience, and from such action appeal shall lie direct to the supreme court of the United States, where the case shall have priority of hearing and determination.

The commission is authorized to require the most comprehensive statistics from all common carriers regarding their business under a penalty on the carriers of $100 for every day in default.

Drained Flask and Died.

Atlanta, Ga., May 22.—Having imbibed an unknown quantity of whiskey, Ella Rayden, an 8-year old negro girl, became violently affected and died at the Grady hospital. When the ambulance arrived, the little negro was in the throes of violent convulsions produced by the whiskey. In some manner she gained access to the family flask which was kept upon a high shelf. How much of the fiery liquid the girl had swallowed could not be learned but the self dealy acquired taste had proved too much for her and when she was found, the fluid was drained and the effects had become apparent in the most terrible form. The child died soon after reaching the hospital.

Insulted Wife, Shot Husband.

Blichfield, W. Va., May 22.—Charles Brown, a prominent citizen who was shot three times at Bruce McNew, a blacksmith at Wilcox Mill, Va., late Saturday afternoon and who was taken to a Bluefield hospital in critical condition, died Sunday. It is alleged McNew insulted Brown's wife, over some trivial matter and when Brown called on McNew to explain the conduct, McNew opened fire with fatal results. Both men are highly connected in Tazewell county. McNew escaped to the mountains immediately after the shooting, but a sheriff's posse is now scouring the country for him. The feeling is exceedingly bitter against McNew and violence has been threatened.

Baseball Fans Mob Officers.

Shelby, O., May 22.—When Constable Buck and his deputy, Will Harris walked out on the diamond here Sunday armed with warrants issued on behalf of the Law and Order League to arrest the players of the Mansfield and Sharon league, 2,000 spectators swarmed out upon the field and surrounded the officers who were beaten and cuffed and jerred by the excited crowd. The officers escaped under police protection. Justice Cattel, who issued the warrants, was sitting in a buggy in the grounds and the vehicle was surrounded and the wheels removed by the crowd, which however offered no violence to the justice.

Eleven Escape from Guard House.

Chattanooga, Tenn., May 22.—By sawing through the steel bars that covered the windows 11 general prisoners escaped from the guard house at Fort Oglethorpe Saturday night. They each had prison terms of from two to five years ahead of them. They had been brought here from southern posts preparatory to being sent to Fort Leavenworth for permanent confinement. A sentry walked his post in front of the guard house and riddled [illegible] while the prisoners were sawing the [illegible] steel bars.

Service for Confederate Dead.

New York, May 22.—Services were held this afternoon [illegible] Confederate dead in Woodlawn cemetery. Many of the [illegible] camp of New York, in memory of the Confederate dead buried here. The daughters of the Confederacy of New York assisted.

DOUMA CRISIS SEEMS PASSED

Threatened Storm Appears to Have Blown Over.

A RUPTURE MAY BE AVERTED

The House Adopted a Resolution to Proceed with the Regular Order of Business and Discussed the Agrarian Question.

St. Petersburg, May 21.—2:22 p. m.—The threatened storm over the emperor's refusal to receive the delegation from the lower house of parliament, appointed to present to him its reply to the speech from the throne has been averted.

The house Monday afternoon adopted a resolution to proceed with the regular order of business, and the discussion of the agrarian question.

Count Solsky, president of the upper house of parliament, has been notified in terms identical with the reply to President Muromtzeff, of the lower house, that the address of the upper house should be presented to the emperor at Peterhof. Baron Fredericks, the minister of the imperial house.

Stoessel Condemned to Death.

St. Petersburg, May 22.—It is reported that the military court which has been investigating the surrender of Port Arthur and the battle of the Yalu River, has condemned to death Lieutenant General Stoessel, who commanded the Russian forces at Port Arthur and Rear Admiral Nebogatoff, who was in command of Admiral Rojestvensky's squadron when it was destroyed by the Japanese.

Steamer Manolita Attacked.

Galveston, May 22.—The steamer Manolita, bound from Tabasco, Mexico, for this port and flying the American flag, has been attacked by Cubans, who took away some of the passengers. The Manolita's machinery got out of order, and was being repaired when the Cubans appeared. While leaving Frontera Veloz about half way between Tabasco and Mobile, a number of Mexican passengers came off from the shore and boarded the Manolita, compelling her crew to hand over to them a number of Mexican passengers belonging to the Real Barraguel party. The marine registers available do not refer to a steamer named Manolita.

Time Stated for Next Conference.

Birmingham, Ala., May 22.—The sixteenth biennial session of the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, south, began with devotional services led by Rev. Dr. Hood of Virginia, with Bishop E. E. Hoss in the chair. Bishop J. C. Keener also was ordained that day, afterward presided. A motion fixing the first Wednesday in May, 1910, as the time for holding the next conference prevailed. A discussion arose over the report of the church extension committee which made several changes in the personnel of the board, but the report was adopted.

Funeral Jehus Out on Strike.

New York, May 22.—A strike of the funeral drivers' association local No. 281, which includes the employes of undertakers below One Hundred and Fifty-third street, went into effect today. The fact that two of the seven owners affected acceded to the demands of the strikers lessened the inconvenience that might have otherwise resulted. As it was, many funerals had to be postponed and those that were held were conducted under difficulties.

RIVERS CONTENDS FOR SECOND PLACE

The Throwing Out of Vote in Baker County Makes Difference.

WILL BE CALHOUN AND RIVERS

In the Second Race for State Attorney of the Eighth Judicial Circuit—They Run Neck and Neck, and the Campaign Will be Exciting.

Hon. J. M. Rivers, candidate for State Attorney from the Eighth Judicial Circuit, has returned from MacClenny, Baker county, where he has been on professional business for the past two or three days.

Col. Rivers declares that the throwing out the vote of Baker county by the county executive committee, on account of irregularities in count, will make a difference in the result between Mr. Fielding and himself, Mr. Fielding having only defeated him by a few votes in accordance with the count of the district.

Mr. Rivers was seen Tuesday, and was perfectly willing to discuss the situation.

"I have been to Baker county," he said, "and find that four precincts of that county—Sanderson, MacClenny, Glen St. Mary and Johnsville—gave Calhoun 65, Fielding 162 and Rivers 122. There are two precincts—Olustee and Baxter—that it has been impossible to hear from definitely, but the vote in those precincts cannot change the result.

"The result from all counties in this district or circuit, including the four precincts to which I have referred in Baker county, show that Calhoun received 1,320, Fielding 1 263, Rivers 1,314 votes, which means that Mr. Calhoun and myself must run in the second race."

While Mr. Rivers did not furnish the information, it is known that the vote was thrown out by the proper authorities in Baker county, who claim the grossest irregularities in making the count in certain precincts. In one precinct the vote was reversed, most assuredly by accident or carelessness, which gave the favor to Mr. Fielding, when it should have gone to Mr. Rivers.

GEO. JOHNSON IN TROUBLE.

Was Arrested for Leaving Wife and Running Away With Another Woman.

George Johnson, colored, who has a wife and five children, it is said, at Long Pond, has been arrested by Deputy Sheriff J. Lee Stokes at Micanopy, and the girl with whom it is alleged he has been intimate has been arrested at Rochelle by Deputy Sheriff F. S. Curl of Archer. The name of this charcoal damsel is Olie Feaster, and she claims that she is only sixteen, (which is perfectly natural) while it can be easily seen that a few more years have revolved about her existence, making her resemble a dried-up squash in a prolific watermelon field.

At any rate, the charge has been made, and the parties must face Justice Chamblin at Archer and tell their troubles to that officer, if they have any. In the meantime they will be held in prison to await decision of the Justice court.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT.

Day Was Passed Quietly. Only Few Cases Being Disposed Of.

The session of the circuit court passed quietly Tuesday, only a few minor cases being disposed of.

The most important case of the day was that of the State vs. Frank Sharp, who was arraigned upon a charge of assault with intent to murder. The defendant was arraigned and pleaded not guilty. The jury was called, and the case brought to trial. After all evidence and argument of counsel, the jury returned a verdict of not guilty.

The court adjourned until 9 o'clock this morning, after Judge Wills had sentenced a few convicted prisoners.

"Behold, How Good and Pleasant."

Decatur, Ills., May 22.—Laughter and applause greeted a telegram received by the Cumberland Presbyterian assembly Saturday from the Negro Cumberland Presbyterian assembly in session at Waco, Tex. It quoted the text, "Behold, how good and pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity."

American Consul Killed.

Batoum, May 22.—W. H. Stuart, the American vice-consul, was shot and killed at his country place Sunday night. The assassins escaped.

COD LIVER OIL.

It almost makes you sick to think of it, but it isn't nearly as bad as it used to be. The improved method of refining it makes it much easier to take, and when made into Scott's Emulsion almost every one can take it. Most children like it and all children that are not robust are benefited by it. When the doctor says "Take cod liver oil," he generally means Scott's Emulsion; ask him if he doesn't. They know it is more easily digested and better than the plain oil.

SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl Street, New York

Wounded by Bomb Explosion.

Faykalisse, Russian Poland, May 21.—Count Keller, a colonel of the dragoons, was severely wounded by the explosion of a bomb which was thrown at the officer while he was returning from a review Monday. His horse was killed and his orderly was injured. The would-be assassin, a young man escaped. Count Keller had been prominent in suppressing disturbances here and in this vicinity.

One Dead; Two Wounded.

New York, May 22.—A special to the Times from Tarrytown, N. Y., says that there was a shooting affray Sunday night on John D. Rockefeller's place at Potanko hills, as a result of which John Content is dead, Tony Dominick, who was shot in the head and side, will probably die, and another wounded man is said to have escaped. The opinion here is that the men quarreled over cards.

Business Portion of Town Destroyed.

Dothan, Ala., May 22.—Almost all of the business portion of Abbeville was destroyed by fire Sunday night. The little town, which is 33 miles from here, is the capital of Henry county and has a population of about 2,500. At this time the amount of the loss involved is not ascertainable.

No Holiday.

People have different ideas as to what constitutes a holiday—or a vacation. Mrs. Pettis had her own firmly fixed opinions on the subject.

"I don't count Thanksgiving or Christmas or Washington's birthday or any of those holidays," she said frankly to an old friend one day. "What I count a holiday is when Ezra and Jim and Rob and Liphlet go off up to the wood lot with their dinner and I know they won't be back till night.

"I'm not one to deny that men folks have their good points, but how a woman can call it a holiday when they're in the house calling for food by looks when they aren't by words is beyond me."—Youth's Companion.

Food For Squirrels.

Most people who feed the gray squirrels in the big parks fail to realize that it is no kindness to give these pretty little animals such soft shell nuts as almonds, peanuts and chestnuts. Human beings who do not have to actually forage for food naturally enough feel that it is thoughtfulness itself to save the squirrels work. The fact is, however, that a squirrel's teeth grow so rapidly that deprived of their normal use, they might even through their very uselessness become long enough to put this charming rodent of the trees in danger of starvation. Hickory, pecan and hazel nuts are the proper food to throw to the squirrels.—Brooklyn Life.

Where Was the Joke?

Mabel—Such a joke on Mr. Gayboy. We were out on the balcony between the dances and he got the sleeve of his dress coat all over red paint from one of the posts that were just painted. Maud—And did you go near the post? Mabel—No. Why? Maud—Oh, nothing, only you have red paint all over the back of your waist.

He Misunderstood.

Mr. Simpson—Sam, is it true that you confiscate your neighbors' chickens? Sam—No, sah, I frickasees 'em.

A PUZZLING FEAT.

The Wonderful Corn Growing Magic of the Zuni Indians.

The medicine men among the Zuni Indians perform a feat at the annual "corn festival" which surpasses the famous mango growing trick of the Hindoo. Many scientists have been present to witness this strange ceremony, but have never been able to fathom the mystery of it.

In front of the southern opening of the medicine lodge a large square of clean yellow sand, carefully smoothed and packed, is spread. With a ceremonial arrow figures representing the Great Spirit, the earth, sun, sky and rain are drawn. There are also the symbols of the corn and a bountiful harvest. The indentations made by the arrow are then filled in with pigments, blue for the sky and clouds, black for the earth and chrome yellow for the harvest. The middle of the square is left vacant. This picture in sand painting is a most pleasing specimen of barbaric art.

The hour for the ceremony arrives, and at the right moment the medicine man comes forth from his lodge and takes a seat in the opening of the lodge, facing the sand square. The warriors and chiefs arrange themselves around the square according to rank. The ceremonial pipe is then filled and lighted, and the medicine man blows one puff in each direction of the compass and two to the heavens. He then makes an address, going over the past history of the tribe and the kindness of the Great Spirit and his care. He concludes with a prayer for the continuance of this favor.

The great moment has arrived. With impressive solemnity the medicine man thrusts the sacred arrow into the sand, withdraws it and places a grain of corn into the hole this made. Carefully smoothing the sand over it, he resumes his seat, while the assembled chiefs smoke their pipes in stolid silence. If the Great Spirit condescends to answer the prayer of the medicine man—and he generally does—the corn will sprout and send up a shoot. After an interval of fifteen or twenty minutes the sand seems disturbed at the spot where the grain of corn was planted, and soon the slender green blades of the sprouting corn are seen above the surface. The plant continues to grow rapidly and naturally during the day, and by the next sunrise the silk and tassels appear. By noon the stalk and ear have reached full maturity and the ripening begins. Finally the blades and husks turn yellow and rattle when the wind shakes them. All this, we must bear in mind, has been done in thirty-six hours. On the morning of the second day the corn growing is complete. The medicine man now addresses the watchers who in company with him have watched the plant grow, for it is never left alone. With appropriate ceremonies he symbolizes the harvest by stripping the ear from the husks and placing the corn in his bag for future use. The stalk is pulled up by the roots and hung over the door of the lodge.—New York Herald.

In a Glass House.

"If there is one thing more than another that makes me wild," said a member of the Mutual Improvement club to a friend, "it is to have that Potter woman correct me when I just make a slip of the tongue. Did you hear her say at that supercilious way of hers, 'My dear, I'm sure you could not have meant that they had nuts "between every number" you meant between every two numbers.' And every one near us heard what she said, the cat!"

"Oh, I shouldn't mind her," said the other woman easily. "If you want revenge just look at her with one of those short waisted, pudgy daughters on either side at the assembly and not a man on the horizon."

"Me," said the aggrieved one. "Yes she does look funny, but, my dear, did you realize you said 'on either side' instead of 'on each side?' Of course if they were on either side they'd—well, they couldn't be, you see! I know you wouldn't mind having me speak of it, for I've noticed you make that little error occasionally, and it's so easy to fall in a habit."

If You Don't

Succeed the first time use Herbine and you will get instant relief. The greatest liver regulator. A positive cure for constipation, dyspepsia, malaria, chills and all liver complaints. Mr. C—— of Emory, Tex., writes: "My wife has been using Herbine for herself and children for five years. It is a sure cure for constipation and malaria fever, which is substantiated by what it has done for my family." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Nervous?

There are many causes of nervousness, but poor blood heads the list. The doctors call it anemia. The blood lacks red corpuscles. At your first opportunity, consult your doctor about taking Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Ask him if he has anything better for weakness, debility, nervousness. If he has, take it. If not, take Ayer's Sarsaparilla. Get well, that's what you are after.

MR. STECKERT BACK FROM SAN FRANCISCO

He Describes the Horrible Conditions of Things in That City.

EARTHQUAKE PLAYED HAVOC

That Once Beautiful City Is Now in Ruins, and Former Elegant Buildings Are Now Nothing More Than Shells. A Graphic Description.

W. R. Steckert, land commissioner for the Cummer Lumber Company, has returned from San Francisco, California, where he was summoned on account of the illness of his sister, Miss Frances Steckert. Miss Steckert, who was a resident of the Golden Gate City, was completely prostrated by the terrible ordeals of the recent earthquake and fire, and by telegraphic summons her devoted brother went to relieve her. They returned together and Miss Steckert will remain here for some time.

In making the journey Mr. Steckert was compelled to undergo the experience of a railroad accident. He was traveling in an elegant train of the Southern Pacific, known as the Sunset Limited. This train, while running about sixty miles per hour near San Jose, was derailed, with the result that the engine, one of the finest and newest on the system, and one baggage car was wrecked, two passengers were killed and a dozen or more injured. Fortunately Mr. Steckert, who was occupying one of the sleepers, was uninjured.

"I have been about some," remarked Mr Steckert Tuesday, "but I have never yet experienced such distressing sights of ruin as met my eyes when I reached San Francisco. I had always heard and read of what a beautiful and progressive city San Francisco was, but when I entered the city and looked over the ruins of what were at one time magnificent structures my heart failed me, for I felt sorry for those who had lost their valuable property and their belongings in this terrible disaster of earthquake and fire. It was something which cannot be described by tongue or pen, and can only be seen to be realized and appreciated for its sweeping gravity.

"While the sights of the disaster were horrifying," continued Mr. Steckert, "I do not think that I should be short of appreciation. As a matter of course, I would much perfer that grand city of San Francisco, the pride of the Pacific coast, in a healthy condition. But since this great catastrophe, we can sympathize with the good people of San Francisco, and any person who has visited there could not have but heart full of sympathy for the unfortunates.

"The people are living in tents, dry goods boxes, or any other place where they can find shelter," continued Mr Steckert.

"I heard of wealthy people who, being deprived of their elegant homes, slept along with the truckman or common laborer in a goods-box and shared his lunch, both of which might have come from the government commissary."

Mr. Steckert states that his sister's home was in danger, and that at one time came near being burned. It is one of the handsomest residences in San Francisco, and had it not been for the heroic efforts of those who were yet able to fight the flames, this home would have been gone.

Mr. Steckert states that the daily rations, comprising bread and meat, are still being issued to those who have not the money to pay. This ration is issued to the people who are dependent, but those with money may go into the commissary, take a chair at a table, and have a meal consisting of bread, potatoes, meat and coffee, served at a cost of from fifteen to twenty cents. This meal is issued from the government without a view to profit.

CHURCH ELECTION.

Deacons and Elders Nominated by First Presbyterian Church.

At a meeting of the congregation of the First Presbyterian Church, after the regular morning service Sunday, there was an election of deacons and elders to fill vacancies caused by death, removal, etc.

The entire congregation was requested to vote for their choice for both offices and the following was the result:

For elders, W. B. Higdon, George S. Merchant; for deacons, E. D. Turner, L. C. Smith, A. L. Vidal.

Knights of Maccabees.

The Knights of the Maccabees will institute a Tent next Friday evening, May 25th, 1906, in the P. O. S. of A. hall at 8 o'clock.

All signers of the charter list are requested to present themselves for instruction, also to assist in organization work, election of officers, etc. All members will be required to pay to the Finance Keeper at this meeting one month's Tent dues and life-benefit members will pay, in addition to the local dues, one assessment, according to the age and the amount of benefit desired, so that the insurance protection can be put in force at once.

Best for Women and Children.

On account of its mild action and pleasant taste Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup is especially recommended for women and children. It does not nauseate or gripe like pills and ordinary cathartics. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup aids digestion and stimulates the liver and bowels without irritating them. Remember the name Orino and refuse substitutes. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Meeting School Board.

The School Board held a special meeting Tuesday, being really an adjourned meeting of the month previous, when matters of importance left over from the last regular meeting were taken up and disposed of. There were only Chairman Weeze and T. A. Doke present, but the business was concluded in a satisfactory manner.

Be sure and use that old and well-tried remedy, Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for diarrhoea. Twenty-five cents a bottle.

RAINY WEATHER BUT GOOD ATTENDANCE

A GREAT MANY WERE THERE

They Faced a Blinding Rain to Attend the Presentation of Little Red Riding Hood, Which Was Put On in Good Style and Made a Hit.

Notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, a good crowd was present Tuesday night at the exercises of the University High School to witness the performance of Little Red Riding Hood, which was participated in by the pupils of the primary grade.

The play was carried off very prettily and those present were delighted with the children and their work in their respective parts. They showed a great deal of credit on the part of their respective teachers. The characters of Little Red Riding Hood, which are so well known, were portrayed in a most interesting manner, and altogether the little folks did remarkably well.

The entertainment was interspersed with vocal and instrumental selections, and altogether it was an evening of great enjoyment to those who were there.

This evening there will be exercises by the grammar school department, comprising the fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth grades; the exercises to conclude with the dialogue or playlet, "Carnival of Industries."

The public is invited.

Judson Jottings.

Judson, May 21.—The much needed rain has come and our crops are considerably revived. Crops are very fine in this section, but the farmers are having a battle to keep the grass down, so the crops can grow.

W. J. Watson passed through our village Tuesday on his way to visit his son, Reuben Watson, at Hague.

The election passed off quietly, and the ice cream was nice, although it was showering rain occasionally.

Mrs. J. M. Brown of Lottieville brought her little daughter here Tuesday to the doctor. She had a bone felon on her thumb.

Uncle Sam Slaughter of old Trenton was here Tuesday trying to get hands to cut his oats. He says he has twenty acres that are now ready to cut.

Gad H. Sanchez of Liberty lost his eleven-months old infant Monday. It was laid to rest in their family graveyard Monday. We sympathize with the bereaved parents.

TALLAHASSEE TOPICS.

Interesting Letter From the Florida State Capital.

Special Correspondence Daily Sun.

Tallahassee, May 22.—An unusual and quite remarkable condition that exists in regard to the recent primary is the utter lack of authentic reports of the results throughout the State. In some instances the tally sheet was locked up in the ballot box, no duplicate being kept, and the candidates and the public were kept in the dark as to the result until Saturday, when the committees met to canvass the returns. Although the official count for the State is not available yet, the election of Blitch and Burr on the Railroad Commission is generally conceded. As the fight was centered on Mr. Burr the endorsement of the people of his work as a member of the Commission is very gratifying to him.

The flattering vote Mr. Blitch received after the short campaign he made is abundant evidence of the recognition of the qualities of honesty, fairness and ability that mark the man. He has what Captain Rose, the State Chemist, terms in Governor Broward, "that affidavit face," and also had the advantage of personal contact with thousands of voters in his rounds as Inspector of State Convicts. It is undeniably true that the best campaigning a man does is before he announces as a candidate, and it is probable that this is true in Mr. Blitch's case.

One of the surprises of the primary came to us here in Leon county in the large majority received by Mr Henderson over Mr. Rawls. Until six weeks ago it was believed that Mr Rawls would be an easy winner; then the tide began to turn. Leon county, like Gaul was, is divided into three parts, the Myers-Raney faction, and another faction of which the late able John A. Henderson was the head, and a third faction of floaters not allied with either, who are open to conviction. A more recent division was made when the banks lined up and took a hand in politics. Mr Rawls, who until recently was cashier of the Capital City Bank, became recognized as a leader among those who had followed Colonel Henderson, and Mr Henderson, who is a son-in-law of the president of the First National Bank of Tallahassee, received its support.

Probably the causes which contributed most to Mr. Rawls' defeat were the Walter Taylor case and the reprieve of the negroes Caldwell and Larkins, under sentence of death for the murder of N. W. Epps two years ago, by Governor Broward on the 6th of May, two days prior to the date set for their execution. Why Mr. Rawls should have suffered from either of these requires a circuitous route of reasoning and conclusions such as were arrived at by Mr. Edward Epps and Mr. Whitehead in the special edition of The True Democrat, edited by Mr. Epps in which he gave expression to his indignation at the Governor's action in reprieving the negroes "without first consulting him," and in which Mr Whitehead called upon "all loyal Democrats to vote against the administration candidates in order to defeat Governor Broward in his design to bring the negro into politics so as to get Republican votes enough to carry his drainage amendment at the fall election"—a charge absurd on its face, as the action of the Governor was in deference to a petition from citizens of Leon county asking a reprieve of sixty days in which the condemned men could present some evidence favorable to them before the Board of Pardons. As Mr. Rawls had been a faithful friend of the family of Mr. Epps, and had given valuable assistance at the time of the murder, it seems the irony of fate that he should have suffered at the hands of his friends.

As is generally the case, lots of people have come out with their faith in human nature shattered; naturally the coy and uncertain voter makes too many promises, or has a mind that won't stay made up.

There is a disposition among certain of the brethren of the press to attempt to foretell what the coming Legislature will do with the drainage proposition by the sentiment of the candidates elected to the House and Senate. In a few instances it is possible to say with a degree of certainty what a choice few will do, but the greater number have not openly committed themselves, and the year that lies between the primary and the next session will bring about developments that will shape the course of the Legislature.

the Vox Dei in the Vox Populi to be expressed by the sovereign people at the polls next November will partially dispose of the matter. Governor Broward has planned an exhaustive campaign during the summer. To drain or not to drain—that is the question that the chief executive will put squarely before us through the long hot days. He is so energetic, this governor of ours. Think of wrestling with such a proposition through June, July and August!

Several old favorites will come back to us in the Legislature of 1907. In the Senate there will be Call, with all sorts of brains, big brains and little brains; the cherubic Frank Adams, who is coming back to hold the little giant Buckman down; Captain Sams of Volusia; McCreary, whose popularity in Alachua has been vouched for in his handsome majority; T. S. Davis, who keeps his mouth shut and votes right; Hunt Harris, who led the brilliant fight for the East Coast extension and talked the State Life Insurance bill to death on the last day of the session, will come back.

We lose Blount and Raney, two of the very strongest members of the last Senate. We gain John Beard and Broome, two able and interesting men, Captain Baker, who defeated Baskins from Marrion, chosen to contest C. M. Brown's place after he went to Miami to live, and John Henderson, who has been called to take Judge Raney's place.

The three Bs, Beard, Buckman and Broome, come with established reputations as orators, so we will doubtless have some soaring of the bird of freedom on occasions, but there is brains enough among them and the others to save the Senate from being designated a cave of winds.

Of them all, perhaps John Beard is personally the most striking figure, intensely Southern, with the distinction and manner of the men of the old South, as handsome as a god, with searching dark eyes, a perfect mouth, and a brilliant talker, facinating and magnetic. He is loaded to the muzzle with convictions and will probably justify a remark I overheard that "John Beard will raise Hades in the Senate."

JEFFERSON BELL.

Senator LaFollette is learning who his friends are, and who are his enemies. He offered two very important amendments to the Hepburn bill, and the Republicans promptly voted them down. The Democrats, however, stood by him. How long will it take him, and Cooper and Lenroot, and the rest of the decent Republicans of Wisconsin to learn that they can hope for nothing from the Roosevelt-Spooner-Aldrich combine?

The Washington Post declares that the Steel Trust has promised to "sell structural iron in San Francisco as cheaply as it sells that product abroad," and adds that the bill to refund the tariff duty has therefore been put to sleep. With all due deference to this exclusive information in The Post of the condescension and concession of the Steel Trust, it is a safe bet that San Francisco will be lucky if it can buy steel at the top price here. Why, to sell steel in San Francisco at the same price it is sold abroad would defeat the Republican candidates for Congress in every doubtful district and put every stand-patter on the defensive. The Post should know that the protectionists claim that trust products are not sold cheaper abroad than here.

The day of cheap newspapers is drawing to an end. The postoffice department has decided to refuse second-class rates of postage to papers and magazines furnished below cost and giving premiums to secure subscribers, and the result will be the death of many papers run only for advertising purposes.

In support of his resolution of Feb. 12th, Senator Tillman made a masterly speech on the subject of the outrages committed by the railroads in West Virginia and Pennsylvania, and if credit is due to any particular Senator for the legislation embodied in the McLaurin amendment Tillman is surely entitled to it.

The Pensacola Journal editor is happy, as evidenced by the following from that excellent paper of last Sunday: "The mullet are running, the trout are biting, Gulf breezes are blowing, and the glories of summer in Florida are here."

The majority primary should be a thing of the past after this year, and the candidate who receives the most votes should be the nominee. We have too many elections.

The white-washing of barns may be all very well in rural architecture, but it is not a safe and sane practice in postoffice politics.

CRISIS OF GIRLHOOD

A TIME OF PAIN AND PERIL

Miss Emma Cole Says that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has Saved Her Life and Made Her Well.

How many lives of beautiful young girls have been sacrificed just as they were ripening into womanhood! How many irregularities or displacements have been developed at this important period, resulting in years of suffering!

A mother should come to her child's aid at this critical time and remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will prepare the system for the coming change and start this trying period in a young girl's life without pain or irregularities.

Miss Emma Cole of Tullahoma, Tenn., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:

"I want to tell you that I am enjoying better health than I have for years, and I owe it all to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"When fourteen years of age I suffered almost constant pain, and for two or three years I had soreness and pain in my side, headaches and was dizzy and nervous, and doctors all failed to help me.

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended, and after taking it my health began to improve rapidly, and I think it saved my life. I sincerely hope my experience will be a help to other girls who are passing from girlhood to womanhood, for I know your Compound will do as much for them."

If you know of any young girl who is sick and needs motherly advice ask her to write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., and she will receive free advice which will put her on the right road to a strong, healthy and happy womanhood. Mrs. Pinkham is daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for twenty-five years has been advising sick women free of charge.

The Ordinaries to Organize.

Columbus, Ga., May 22—Judge William Redd, Jr., ordinary of Muscogee county, is sending out notices to the ordinaries of the state to attend a meeting at the Bibb court house in Macon on May 29th, at which time the ordinaries plan to reorganize their old association. Over 50 per cent of the ordinaries of the state have expressed a desire to have an organization of their own. They formerly had such an association, but later it was merged with the general association of county officers. The formation of another association by the ordinaries does not necessarily mean that they will withdraw from the county officers' association.

Was Wasting Away.

"I had been troubled with kidney disease for the last five years," writes Robert R. Watts, of Salem, Mo. "I lost flesh and never felt well and doctored with leading physicians and tried all remedies suggested without relief. Finally, I tried Foley's Kidney Cure and less than two bottles completely cured me, and I am now sound and well." During the summer kidney irregularities are often caused by excessive drinking or being overheated. Attend to the kidneys at once by using Foley's Kidney Cure. J. W. McCollum & Co.

120 Bulgarians Are Butchered.

Salonica, European Turkey, May 22—A detachment of Turks on Saturday annihilated a band of 120 Bulgarians at Eksolai, near Monastir, the scene of previous butcheries. The Turkish government has submitted a bill asking the second chamber of parliament to approve a protocol which Russia wishes the signatories of the convention of 1899 to sign on assembling for the second peace conference, which declares that the powers not presented at the first conference, but which have been invited to attend the second shall by acceptance of the invitation become adherents to the convention.

FIVE DROWNED DURING SQUALL

Prominent Tennessee People Lose Lives by Capsizing Boat.

Chattanooga, Tenn., May 22.—Five persons, all connected with one of the prominent families of James county, Tennessee, were drowned Saturday afternoon in the Tennessee river. The accident occurred near Norman, a village about 12 miles north of Chattanooga.

The names of those drowned are:

Mrs. Edgar Miles, of Chattanooga.
Mrs. Sim Eldridge.
Mary Eldridge.
DeWitt Eldridge.
Abel McGill.

All but Mrs. Edgar Miles are of Norman.

Jesse Eldridge, a lad of 18 years, escaped by clinging to the overturned boat.

The boat capsized on account of a high wind that struck it when in mid stream. It was a miniature squall. Mrs. Miles clung to the clothing of her brother, Jesse Eldridge, until in desperation he forced her to release her hold. She went to the bottom but he escaped.

The body of Mary Eldridge has been recovered, and a systematic search is being prosecuted for the others.

Three Brothers Die by Bullets.

Mayfield, Ky., May 22.—A triple tragedy, the details of which will probably always remain a mystery, occurred Sunday night at Linneville this county. A visitor to the ware house owned by Mark Wilson, a merchant, found the proprietor, his brother, West Wilson, and Arthur West, lying on the floor shot to death. Revolvers were found beside the bodies of Arthur and West Wilson. Two citizens reported that they had been at the warehouse shortly before 7 o'clock in the afternoon and left the trio apparently on good terms, although they had been drinking. The supposition is that West Wilson and Arthur West engaged in a shooting affray, killing each other and that one of the bullets struck Mark Wilson.

Fortunate Missourians.

"When I was a druggist at Livonia, Mo.," writes T. J. Dwyer, now of Graysville, Mo., "three of my customers were permanently cured of consumption by Dr. King's New Discovery, and are well and strong today. One was trying to sell his property and move to Arizona, but after using New Discovery a short time he found it unnecessary to do so. I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as the most wonderful medicine in existence." Surest cough and cold cure and lung healer. Guaranteed by all druggists. 50c and $1. Trial bottle free.

Pope's Condition Improved.

Rome, May 22.—When Dr. Lapponi visited the pope Monday morning he found the pontiff had passed a good night, feeling that gouty pain in his knee had almost disappeared, and that his general condition had improved. Although his temperature was against him, although normal, the doctor allowed the pope to get up for a few hours, but advised him not to resume his audiences until the end of the week and even then only if he continues to make satisfactory progress.

Decides Against Senator Burton.

Washington, May 22.—The supreme court has decided against Senator Burton, of Kansas. If Senator Burton does not resign "at once" as a prominent senator puts it, a resolution will be introduced to declare his seat vacant.

"Suspension" Day in House.

Washington, May 22.—Monday being the "suspension" day, so-called, the house took up the consideration of the senate bill to "regulate enlistment and punishments in the United States revenue cutter service."

Sailed Under Secret Orders.

Philadelphia, May 22.—The cruiser Columbia sailed Monday under secret orders with 600 marines aboard. It is understood the vessel will go to Guantanamo and thence to Santo Domingo.

WASHING WITHOUT WATER

Is Like Trying to Get Rid of Dandruff Without Herpicide.

[illegible] ever see any one trying to wash themselves without soap or water?

If you did what would you say of him?

It is every bit as foolish to try to get rid of dandruff and to prevent baldness by feeding the germs which cause it with cheap tallow, vaseline, cocoanut oil and similar substances which form the principal ingredients of most so-called Hair Vigors.

Newbro's Herpicide is unlike all other because it attacks and kills the microbe germ which feeds on the hair roots.

Simplon Tunnel Is Opened.

Domodosola, Italy, May 22.—The Simplon tunnel was inaugurated by King Victor Emmanuel Saturday. The royal train passed through the 12 miles of tunnel, drawn by a steam engine, the electric motors not being ready. On reaching the middle of the tunnel, at a height of 2,200 feet above the sea level, the king was heard to exclaim: "It is a cyclopic work, the result of half a century of study, seven years of work and the expenditure of nearly $15,000,000." At Brique the king was received by the president of the Swiss republic.

Hunted Man Arrested.

San Francisco, May 22.—S. A. D. Puter, accused of complicity in the Oregon land frauds and who has been hunted for months by the federal authorities since he escaped from detectives in Boston, has been arrested at Alameda by secret service men. Puter did not willingly submit to arrest but attempted to draw a revolver. The detectives quickly covered him with their pistols but even then had much trouble in getting their prisoner to the police station.

Postmaster Robbed.

G. W. Fouts, postmaster at Riverton, Ia., nearly lost his life and was robbed of all comfort, according to his letter, which says: "For 20 years I had chronic liver complaint, which led to such a severe case of jaundice that even my finger nails turned yellow; when my doctor prescribed Electric Bitters, which cured me and have kept me well for eleven years." Sure cure for biliousness, neuralgia, weakness and all stomach, liver, kidney and bladder derangements. A wonderful tonic. At all drug stores. 50 cents.

Officers Search for Negroes.

Macon, Ga., May 22.—A continued search has been made by officers of the police force for the negroes who are charged with burning the Atlantic Compress here. The negro boy in the city prison said they burned the compress after they were discharged, and this led to his own arrest and a close search for the others who were implicated by the negro detained.

RUNNING THE GANTLET.

This Punishment Was Once Used For Military Discipline.

"In running the gantlope the regiment was formed six deep, and the ranks opened and faced inward. Each man being furnished with a switch, the offender, naked to the waist, was led through the ranks, preceded by a sergeant, the point of whose reversed halbert was presented to his breast to prevent his running too fast. As he thus passed through the ranks every soldier gave him a stroke."—Grose's "Military Antiquities," volume 2, page 108.

But the oldest notice I have seen is given in "Monro—His Expedition With the Worthy Scots Regiment (called Mackeyes Regiment), Levied In August, 1626, Etc. London. Printed by William Jones In Red-Crosse Streete, 1637:"

"Other slight punishments we enjoyne for slight faults, put in execution by their camarades, as the loupegarthe (running the gantlet; Swedish gantulopp, to run through a hedge made by soldiers), when a souldier is stripped naked above the waste and is made to runne a furlong betwixt 200 souldiers ranged alike opposite to others, leaving a space in the midst for the souldier to runne through, where his camarades whip him with small rods ordained and cut for the purpose by the Gavilliger (provost marshal), and all to keepe good order and discipline."—London Notes and Queries.

WEDDING SPEECHES.

Some That Were Not In the Usual Conventional Style.

A wedding in New York at which the bridesmaids were representative of six nationalities and each felicitated the bride in the language of her own country was an odd affair, but probably not so well received as the speech of a young Englishman who was called upon to propose the toast, "The Bridesmaids." Apprised of his ordeal in advance, he had devised an escape, and with the single statement that silence was golden he brought from his pocket a set of gold bangles, which he bestowed upon the attendants of the bride.

At a wedding feast at Dol, in Normandy, the demand for a speech resulted in the production of a guitar, upon which the speaker accompanied himself while he chanted the praises of the bride. Had he stopped there all would have been well, but he changed to a praise of his store, and the guests threw him out of the house.

Doubtless a similar fate should have befallen the sharpshooter who wrote the name of the bride upon the wall with pistol bullets, to the serious damage of the wall paper. Almost as odd was the performance of a German music hall performer, who, when called upon for entertainment, mounted the table upon his hands and balanced himself upon glasses, cups and other furnishings.

Pirating Foley's Honey and Tar.

Foley & Co., Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. These worthless imitations have similar sounding names. Beware of them. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and refuse any substitute. It is the best remedy for coughs and colds. J. W. McCollum & Co.

A Cold Hard Snub

Reminiscent.

The author had written one successful story and he never grew tired talking of it.

"Don't you know," said one of his friends to another one day, "Riter always reminds me of a pleased dog."

"That's odd. How does he?"

"He's always wagging his tale."

War Against Consumption.

All nations are endeavoring to check the ravages of consumption, the "white plague" that claims so many victims each year. Foley's Honey and Tar cures coughs and colds perfectly and you are in no danger of consumption. Do not risk your health by taking some unknown preparation when Foley's Honey and Tar is safe and certain in results. Ask for Foley's Honey and Tar and insist upon having it. J. W. McCollum & Co.

MASCULINE DIMPLES.

They Are Not Always Appreciated by Their Owners.

"Dimples are just as common among men as among women," says a New York beauty doctor, "only they don't show off to such good advantage. Beard and mustache combine to hide their charm. Anyhow, men are not proud of dimples. They consider them a sign of effeminacy. Now that smooth faces are the fashion, the man with a dimple in cheek or chin is hard put to it to hide that beauty mark. In his extremity he seeks relief from me.

"'What can I do with these confounded dimples?' he asks.

"'Take 'em out,' I advise.

"'Can you do it?' he asks.

"'Sure,' says I.

"'All right,' says he, 'go ahead.'

"Then I begin treatment. In the past year I have removed sets of dimples from men's faces that any woman of their acquaintance would have paid $100 for. All men with money to spend patronize the beauty doctor more shamelessly than they used to, but of all the miracles they wish performed there is none they insist upon so stoutly as the removal of dimples."—Exchange.

VARIETIES OF IVORY.

The Best Comes From the Elephants of East Africa.

Ivory is, strictly speaking, obtained only from the tusks of the elephant, the finest of which come from the east coast of Africa. This hard, heavy, fine grained green or guinea ivory is esteemed for its transparency and because its light yellow or pale blood tint, unlike the whiteness of other kinds which becomes yellow, bleaches with age. The different species of African elephant supply almost all the ivory used in Europe. Its quantity is enormous. One London firm sells 10,000 tusks yearly in billiard balls. Under so heavy a drain the supply must fail, but to fall back upon are remarkable deposits of mammoth tusks which have accumulated on the rivers discharging into the Arctic ocean.

Since man began to express himself in art he has made use of ivory. Here, however, the term has a wider application. It covers the teeth of the hippopotamus, the long tusks of the walrus and even the single tooth of the narwhale. Under the description of ivories comes carving in polished stag's horn and in bone. The most remarkable of prehistoric ivories is the representation of a head and shoulder of an ibex carved in reindeer horn, which is done with so much science and observation, though the work of a cave dweller of Dordogne, that naturalists are able to assign it to the ibex of the Alps rather than that of the Pyrenees.

Billiard balls are turned from the most perfect elephant tusks, not necessarily the largest, for the best and most costly are made from teeth scarcely larger than the balls themselves in diameter and known as ball teeth. Some of the balls turned from even these are better than others. They are of higher grade the nearer they are to the termination of the nerve which runs through the tusk, and the smaller this is, as may be observed in the black speck to be seen on a ball, the better the quality.

Fossil or blue ivory is sometimes found in commerce and is used occasionally in the manufacture of jewelry. It is evidently from the tusks of antediluvian mammoths buried in the earth for thousands of years, during which time they have become slowly penetrated with metallic salts, which have given them a peculiar blue color, allowing them to be used as turquoises.—Chicago News.

A Shrewd Poet.

There is a story told of a poor Greek poet who lived in Rome at the time of the Emperor Augustus. It shows us that wit often succeeds where merit fails.

The poet was anxious to gain favor with the emperor. Every morning he waited at the palace door, and as the emperor passed out the poet presented him with a verse or an epigram that he had composed. The emperor accepted the poetry, but never paid the poet anything. Indeed, his presumption rather amused the emperor, and, being one day in a merry humor, he wrote a verse himself and handed it gravely to the poet, who waited for him, as usual, at the gate.

The poet, with ready wit, pulled out his purse and emptied the two or three copers it contained into the emperor's hand.

"Ah," cried he, "there should be more, but I give you my ability. If I were as rich as you, great Caesar, I would pay a much greater price for verses."

And it is pleasant to be told that the emperor thought the joke worth 1,000 crowns.

Water Cure For Rheumatism.

"If people afflicted with rheumatism would only try a simple remedy right at hand instead of scurrying all over the country for a cure they would get well a good sight quicker," said a man who was once so knotted up with rheumatism that he had to use crutches. "Just let them drink water. Quarts of it. That's what did the business for me. I drink about three quarts of water a day—not ice water, but just ordinary cold water as it comes from the faucet. I drink two glasses when I get up in the morning, when I go to bed and I drink it all day. I have a big pitcher of it put on my desk, and whenever I look up from my work for a minute's rest I take a glass of water. No mineral water, no charged water, no 'health water' for me, but just plain, good old fashioned water. To be sure, the salt water baths at the shore did me a lot of good, but the damp days at the shore took all the good away. Now I use fresh water baths internally and every summer where it is high and dry."—New York Press.

READ THIS.

Lexington, Tenn., June 4, 1901.

This is to certify that I have used the Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, for kidney trouble and have been very greatly benefited and I can cheerfully recommend it to the public.

J. O. Counts, Ex-Sheriff.

A TEXAS WONDER.

One small bottle of the Texas Wonder, Hall's Great Discovery, cures all kidney and bladder troubles, removes gravel, cures diabetes, seminal emissions, weak and lame backs, rheumatism and all irregularities of the kidneys and bladder in both men and women, regulates bladder troubles in children. If not sold by your druggist, will be sent by mail on receipt of $1. One small bottle is two months' treatment and seldom fails to perfect a cure. Dr. Ernest W. Hall, sole manufacturer, P. O. box 629, St. Louis, Mo. Send for testimonials. Sold by J. W. McCollum & Co.

N. A. Callison, manager of Spring Park Farm, was among the visitors to this city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Melton of Micanopy were in the city Monday. They were accompanied by John W. Melton of Lakeland, who is visiting in Micanopy.

John Entenza and Washington Kite of Waldo were in the city yesterday. Mr. Kite has just gone into the mercantile business with his brother, Ed Kite, at Waldo, and it is unnecessary to add that they will enjoy a good business.

A called meeting of J. J. Finley Chapter, U. D. C., will be held at the residence of Mrs. W. B. Taylor this (Wednesday) afternoon at 4 o'clock, to consider arrangements for services on Jefferson Davis Memorial Day. Full attendance desired. MRS. W. B. TAYLOR, President.

W. H. Underwood, formerly with the S. J. Thomas Company, has accepted a position with John G. Christopher, mill supplies, of Jacksonville. Mr. Underwood is a fine salesman and will no doubt make a great success of his work in this territory. He will continue to make his home here, which will be gratifying information to the numerous friends of himself and family.

H. L. Miller of Palatka was in the city yesterday. Mr. Miller was for nine years the foreman of the big Davis tank factory in that city. He is one of the most competent tank men in the country, and will soon go on the road as a representative of The W. E. Colwell Company of Louisville, Ky., who are among the leading tank and cistern builders of the world. Mr. Miller will be "equal to the occasion."

Rev. T. J. Nixon, pastor of Kavanaugh Methodist Church, who has been in Birmingham, Ala., for the past two or three weeks in attendance upon the meeting of the General Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, returned to the city yesterday. Mr. Nixon reports having a very pleasant time while in Birmingham, the work of the conference being of a very interesting nature. Friends will be pleased at his return.

W. T. Jones of Fort White, formerly of this city but now manager of the Dutton Phosphate Company's comissary at that point, has returned to his new home, after a couple of days spent with friends in this city. Mr. Jones has been connected with various grocery stores in Gainesville for many years, and has commanded a trade which is almost enviable, since he has entered on his order-book many desirable customers and friends, who wish for his return.
